

Prelude Orchestra - Bass

When you come to play for us, please prepare:

- One scale of your choice, any octave(s)
- A piece of your choice that represents your level of playing
- Sight reading

 Below are materials that you may use to perform if you do not know what to play **

Scales

G Major

D Major

Long, Long Ago

T.H. Bayly

Moderato

The musical score is written in bass clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 4/4 time signature. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The score consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a mf dynamic and a fermata over the first measure. The second staff starts at measure 5, marked with a f dynamic, and ends with a fermata. The third staff starts at measure 9, marked with a p dynamic, and ends with a fermata. The fourth staff starts at measure 13, marked with a f dynamic, and ends with a fermata. Slurs are present under the final measures of the second and fourth staves.

5

9

13

mf

f

p

f

Sight Reading

The sight reading examples may include any of the following parameters.

Rhythms	Time Signatures	Pitch Ranges	Key Signatures	Musical Elements
	2/4 3/4 4/4 C (common time)	First position, on all 4strings	C Major G Major D Major Accidentals may be used	Slurs Staccato Dynamics

Sight Reading Practice:

1. Identify the time and key signature.
2. Scan for all the types of beats.
3. Tap or clap the rhythms.
4. Play through the example with a consistent speed.
5. Isolate problem measures.

Example 1

Example 2

